

Ling Faith-Heuertz

Ling is a transplant to New Mexico from the Midwest. Her family moved to the Land of Enchantment in 1998 after falling in love with the diverse terrain, food, and communities. Ling joined NM MESA in 2017, bringing with her over eighteen years of experience from the nonprofit world.

A first-generation college student, Ling holds a Bachelor's Degree in Mathematics as well as English Literature from the University of Nebraska, and a Master's in Special Education from the University of New Mexico. She holds certifications in TESOL and Project Management. She believes strongly in community investment and spends much of her free time volunteering for various organizations in New Mexico.
